

Enabling Others to Act

created by the congregation of St. Paul's United Church

Jesus is with us in his admonition to "do unto others as you would have others do unto you"
Even his question "have you caught any fish" Nothing like sharing a good fish fry... you eat – you talk – you listen – you commune.

Opportunity to connect with others
Challenging Empire is hard

Over my Head Lord
Accepting and open to trust
This little light of mine
Speaks to the heart

Leads us out of our own Darkness. Allows us the Light and Love of others.
Our chance at daily resurrection and renewal. As always He leads by Example.
The sole purpose of power is not the glory of the leader, but the wellbeing and productivity of the led.
God asks me to share the gifts I have been given.
The Light has come into the world.

Do unto others as you would like to be treated.
It is important to be a positive role model for others.
He was a healer – if you are sick & distracted it is hard to act.
With blessings and wisdom
Spiritual Manna

By helping others
Believe
Unending Love. Steadfast love.
By enabling others to see the fears of the world and learn the courage to work through them
Inclusiveness

Jesus teaches us critical thinking, gives us confidence to walk the talk, to think outside the box of oppression
Validation, respect, trust
By giving us choice and free will Believe in the best for others
TRUST

Through love and compassion
Through his actions and words and others such as disciples
Inspiring hope
Relation, Illumination, Salvation!

He enables others to act through caring about others and showing that he cares
Strengthen each other through cooperation
Jesus led by example & we learn from that & grow
Trusting others encourages decisiveness
A guiding force for good
By trust and respect for others

Takes risks by giving others and opportunity
A shared vision of Love
Encouragement
Inspirational example
By providing himself as an example.
