

Chris Peet will talk on “Interspirituality” on November 1st.

International politics, transnational corporations, multiculturalism, interfaith dialogue, religious ecumenism are increasingly commonplace features of today’s “global village”. This pluralistic ethos has impacted contemporary developments in spirituality, too; for this Day 5 we’ll look at some of the emerging forms of interspirituality being explored by Christians in deep engagement with other spiritual traditions of the world.