

Lori will be speaking on "hylozoism," the ancient belief that all matter is somehow alive.

Using ideas from fashion designer, Iris van Herpen, and architecture professor, Philip Beesley, Lori will ask Day 5 attendees to consider the relationship between life and matter. Photographs from a recent exhibition of Herpen's and Beesley's work at the Royal Ontario Museum will be used to present the ideas.